

October 26, 2017
Meeting Agenda

8:00-9:00 a.m.	Registration, Networking Breakfast
9:00-9:10 a.m.	President's Welcome Presented by Melissa Niemczyk, Staples
9:10-10:25 a.m.	Benchmarking Hop Members will rotate between 8 tables, spending 15 minutes at each table. Each table will have a set of questions for participants to answer. Responses will be tallied for benchmarking purposes and shared with membership. Topics include: Global Policy and Program, Domestic Policy and Program, Home Sale, Technology, Immigration, Temporary Living, Extended Business Travelers and Mortgage.
10:25 -10:35 a.m.	Break
10:35-11:35 a.m.	Tax Hot Topics  KPMG will provide an update on the impact the current administration has or may have on U.S. tax law, international compensation issues and tax implications around extended business travelers.  Presented by David Mayes, KPMG
11:35-11:45 p.m.	Break
11:45-12:45 p.m.	Talent Dashboard &amp; Core Flex Policy  Heather Tuttle, Director, Global Mobility, Merck, will share Merck's approach to tracking Global Mobility data in conjunction with HR Information Systems/ Talent Management data, to demonstrate Global Mobility program ROI. Heather will also speak about Merck's new core-flex policy.  Presented by Heather Tuttle, Director, Global Mobility, Merck
12:45 – 2:00 p.m.	Lunch